

Coal Ash Week of Action 2014

Sample Tweets

Tweets with Duke Spill Focus

6 months after NC coal ash spill and #coalash is still less regulated than household trash. @WhiteHouse what's the deal? #kickcoalash

@WhiteHouse Protect communities like those affected by NC's #coalash spill— finalize federal protection before 2015 #kickcoalash

36,000 tons of #coalash still in NC river 6 months after spill @WhiteHouse don't let another community fall victim #kickcoalash

6 months after & we haven't forgotten NC's massive #coalash spill. @WhiteHouse, have you? It's time for fed #coalash protection #kickcoalash

39,000 tons of #coalash polluted NC river in Feb. @WhiteHouse set federal reg on #coalash and don't let history repeat itself #kickcoalash

@WhiteHouse remember the 39,000 tons of #coalash that coated 70mi of a NC river in Feb? We do. Time for federal reg #kickcoalash

#Coalash spill in Dan River left NC communities devastated @WhiteHouse enuff is enuff! We need fed #coalash protection #kickcoalash

Tweets with Mention of Duke Energy Clean-Up

92% of #coalash lingers in NC river 6months after spill— @DukeEnergy you call that a cleanup? bit.ly/1qXV36R #kickcoalash

@DukeEnergy recovers less than 10% of NC #coalash spill & calls the job done. @EPA make this polluter clean up its mess! #kickcoalash

@DukeEnergy calls cleanup of NC #coalash spill "complete". W/ 92% of #coalash remaining, we beg to differ bit.ly/1qXV36R #kickcoalash

@EPA calls @DukeEnergy #coalash clean-up "complete", bt does "complete" mean leaving 36,000tons of toxic #coalash behind?#kickcoalash

36,000 tons of #coalash still linger in NC river 6 months after spill. @EPA tell Duke Energy clean up its mess!! #kickcoalash